

The Union.

JUNCTION, SATURDAY, AUGUST 9, 1862.

TO ARMS!

The inhabitants of Junction and vicinity are invited to meet at Taylor's Hall on Monday evening next, to consult about forming a Home Guard company.

MANY CITIZENS.

ATTENTION!—The Union men of Junction City precinct will meet at Taylor's Hall next Wednesday evening to choose members of the County Executive Committee.

IT "Rambler's" communication will appear next week.

IT The hay contract that was advertised to be let last Monday, was awarded to L. B. Perry, of Island City, at $2.75 a ton.

IT See advertisement of F. R. Merk, No. 51 Delaware street, Leavenworth. Mr. Merk is now receiving about eight hundred cook and heating stoves, and a lot of iron for sorghum boilers. Buyers should give him a call.

IT Last Monday morning the first coach left this city that every westward of us. Only two or three years in advance of the locomotive. On Sunday the new stock arrived in town for this section of the road. Three new and elegant coaches, and a lot of fine, large mules constituted the "outfit."

OUTFIT FOR BOWEN'S CAVALRY.—The clothing, arms, camp and garrison equipage for this company arrived this week; and new recruits are coming in from all quarters faster than ever. Lieut. Sales with a squad of men, is now out west for the purpose of ascertaining the true state of facts in regard to the Indian excitement which has been again prevailing. [Big Blue Union.]

THE UNION EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF Davis County is called to meet in this city next Saturday, the 16th inst., to take the preparatory steps of the campaign. By the call it will be seen that the Committee will be fresh from the people, knowing their wants, and untrammelled in every respect. The organization of the Union party in this county, perfected last fall, will thus be strengthened. The call is addressed to all Republicans and Democrats, who favor a vigorous war upon rebels, to meet in precinct caucuses and choose their members of this Committee.

ROBERT WILSON, P. M.

IT Our old friend, John Bourne, has turned up again. We have received a copy of the Conservator, published at Platte City, Missouri, by Clark & Bourne. It is hard to say it, John, in view of past associations, but we have such a miserable opinion of your loyalty that we cannot conscientiously wish you success. We don't propose that those who have not been unflinchingly steadfast shall have any thing to say regarding the conduct of affairs, and therefore, John, think that you ought now to be engaged in digging trenches for our army. During your natural life, John, you have forfeited everything, according to the Confiscation act. You cannot retrieve yourself, John, but you can counteract the disastrous effects of disloyalty upon the public by taking up the cudgel in favor of emancipation in your State. The tone of the Conservator is rather "mixed."

IT Progress or retrogression is the device of the day. We perceived this the best when we called at Leavenworth, at Mr. S. M. Roths child's Store who keeps a large and nice assortment, wholesale and retail, of MILLINERY AND STRAW GOODS, HOSIERY, GLOVES, HOOP SKIRTS, ALL KINDS OF NOTIONS AND FANCY GOODS, WILLOW WARE, CHILDREN'S CARRIAGES AND GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, and intends keeping DRY GOODS by next Fall. For that purpose he is enlarging his Store and finishing it up in the latest New York style. We therefore advise ALL, especially MERCHANTS and MILLINERS, to call at his establishment, 71 Delaware street, and buy their wants, where they will surely find the best and greatest assortment, the lowest prices, prompt and most attendance in the Western country.

All rebel Chaplains are to be immediately released, the principle having been recognized that they are not to be held as prisoners of war. Another example of unnecessary leniency, as they are undoubtedly the most pestilent class of rebels extant.
